

On March 9th,

our club traveled to Weingarten, Missouri to tour the Weingarten Vineyards. As we traveled to the caravan location, mother nature rained on our parade, but by the time we headed down Highway 55, the skies cleared and we had a beautiful early Spring day.

The Weingarten Winery is set in Southeast Missouri about 20 miles north of Perryville. The facility is set up beautifully and is probably more beautiful in late Spring or Fall.

Upon our arrival, we did some serious wine tasting, although for some of our group preferred the variety of fine beers.

We were able to order from the menu and pizza and sandwiches were the choice of most. Our group was then given a tour of the winery. It is truly a beautiful building.

We took advantage of our window of good weather but as we headed home, we had a forecast of more rain and some snow to come.

All in all, it was a great way to spend a March Saturday. We may consider this event again.
